

First Annual Ready Schools Miami Learning Showcase

Maritime Arts and Science Technology Academy
3979 Rickenbacker Causeway, Key Biscayne, FL 33149

Saturday, May 16, 2009
10:00am - 2:00pm

This culminating event features teacher leaders, administrators, and university faculty who are coming together to share their work and wisdom from the school year. Teachers and principals are showcasing innovative teaching practices in interactive demonstrations, engaging in facilitated conversations about teacher and student work, and presenting the results of their year's work with students and staff at their schools. The event is meant to celebrate successes, large and small.
